Hi Elizabeth,

Thank you for sending this through - I definitely think it is the best course of action and I really appreciate your help with everything.

I have also alerted the pub of the situation and they might be in touch with you to explain a bit more their end as I believe they are struggling with her a little more intensely right now but they agree that this is the right route to go down.

Thanks once again and I will be in touch if there are any further developments.

Kind regards,

Richard

Subject: crime ref: 2702958/16

Hi Richard,

Further to our earlier conversation, I am writing to clarify the points we discussed in relation to crime ref: 2702958/16.

As you explained, Fiona has only contacted you twice since Christmas, a marked decline in her levels of contact since 2014. In keeping with your concerns that police intervention might exacerbate the situation and lead to further prolonged contact from her, instead of issuing a first instance harassment warning letter I will look to refer Fiona to the appropriate mental health/community intervention team for support in this case.

If, in the future, she contacts you again, please do not hesitate to call 101 in order to make another report or contact me on the details provided below. More importantly, if at any point you feel threatened by her or fear for your safety, then please call 999.

If you require further information or would like to discuss anything further then please feel free to contact me.

Kind regards,

Elizabeth
